You have been asked to design a package / development / net to be used to hold a selection of chocolates

1. Develop a name for the new box of chocolates and a style of writing, so that it can be displayed on the package / box
2. Add colour and decoration to the box.
Research examples of chocolate selection boxes to help you design a suitable style.

Consider adding:

a bar code in an appropriate place on the development / net,
the price,

any other important design details (search the internet for ideas).
