DESIGN ONE - STORAGE BOX - MACKINTOSH STYLE

V.Ryan © 2012 World Association of Technology Teachers

The storage box design seen below, has been designed to store a child's toys.

Study the design carefully.

State whether or not the design meets the Mackintosh design criteria, by completing the right side of the table, adding YES / NO and an explanation, against each criteria.

Functional, stylish and yet simplistic.
Use of natural materials.	Mahogany has been used, with a varnished finish
Influenced by art nouveau, modernism and especially Japanese style
Limited decoration, with pattern and ornament minimised.
Use of floral patterns/motifs/forms, as seen in his stain glass designs, and applied to furniture.
Use of texture, light and shadow - tactile.
Powerful use of right angles, use of squares and rectangles with subtle curves.
Combined materials such as stain glass and natural wood.
