INCLUSIVE DESIGN - QUESTIONS

1. What is Inclusive Design? Include an example of a product that you think is inclusive. You should use a diagram/diagrams to illustrate your answer

2. What role does the use of anthropometric data and good ergonomic design play in 'inclusive design'? Include a description of a product (not the same as in question 1), to support your answer.

3. Environmental aspects are often involved in the design of an inclusive product. Describe two environmental aspects that you think are relevant when designing a product that you think is inclusive.
